Dear Families

I have no fitting words today to describe the pain felt and the love shared through the week following the devastating news of Ted. Our hearts ache for Sarah and Paul, William, Charlie and Stella and their families and I know everyone in our small school family wants to reach out and wrap the family in love.

We adored Ted for his cheeky grin, entrepreneurial ideas, his jokes, his huge laugh that filled a room and his big personality. Ms Wickland and Miss Garrill hold dear the sight and sounds of Ted and Matthew dressed as the ugly sisters in their Christmas panto; Mrs Roberts recalled the Lockdown company TLC - Ted, Leila, Connor, they kept us going with milkshakes and cookies and raised £250; Mr Goddard for his cheeky laugh that would always guarantee a lift in spirits in any and every lesson and I just loved him from the day we met this little bundle of joy to the pride felt as he shared with me his ingenious personal statement written in the most creative way for QEGs.

We have placed a box just inside the front door for messages and cards for Ted's family.

Sunnyside Garden

I have been to buy my seeds and am now organised for when to plant each packet. I have sorted out the packets into the months they should be sown and filed them in my seed box. The next job to do is to wash the seed trays and pots so that they are ready when I need them.

I have noticed the pots of bulbs around school that the Reception class planted for each class. What a lovely idea children. I am looking forward to some of the bulbs flowering soon. I have moved my pots of bulbs into the sun lounge where they will get light and continue to grow slowly.

I have also bought a bag of seed potatoes. I need to space out the small potatoes in egg boxes to let them start to sprout. The little red shoot on one side of the potato is the beginnings of the stem and leaves and must be facing upwards. These will stay in the cold sun lounge until Early April when the soil will be warmer and I can plant them outside.
