

St Helena's Church of England Primary School

Headteacher Vacancy

"It is our responsibility to learn and achieve our dreams as a family"

Are you dynamic, inspirational, a visionary? Can you nurture, encourage and empower those around you?

St Helena's Church of England Primary School, Willoughby is seeking a new Headteacher to replace Sue Belton who is retiring after 20 years inspired leadership.

The Governing Body wish to appoint someone who:

- Has proven experience of successful leadership and collaboration, is loyal and honest, as well as having strong personal and work ethics and morals.
- Has commitment to uphold and promote the school's Christian ethos and a positive approach to working with the church community.
- Is kind, compassionate and nurturing and so will maintain a school environment where children flourish emotionally, socially and academically.
- Has an understanding of the current Ofsted and SIAMS inspection frameworks to drive performance.
- Has the ability and ambition to continue to raise standards throughout the school, enabling every child and colleague to reach their full potential.
- Has excellent organisational and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build on strong working relationships within school, with partners and the wider community.
- Is a person who has the vision and the skill necessary to lead our school through our exciting journey as we look to join the Meridian MAT.

We can offer you:

- Leadership of our passionate team of fully dedicated colleagues.
- A creative environment that supports and enhances our vision and inclusive ethos.
- Commitment to your professional development and wellbeing.
- Children who are polite, enthusiastic and well-behaved.
- Parents who are committed to the school and the wider community.
- Exciting opportunities that St Helena's C of E Primary School promises.
- A welcoming, dedicated and supportive Governing Body.
